Have a great summer!!

Coach's Corner

With the hot summer months fast approaching, here are some safety tips to remember when spending time in the sun!

- Seek shade when necessary. UV rays are strongest and most harmful during midday, so it's best to plan indoor activities then. If this is not possible, seek shade under a tree, an umbrella, or a pop-up tent.
- When possible, cover up with long-sleeved shirts and long pants and skirts to provide protection from UV rays.
- Wear a hat that shades the face, scalp, ears, and neck. If your child chooses a baseball cap, be sure to protect exposed areas with sunscreen.
- Wear sunglasses. They protect your child's eyes from UV rays, which can lead to cataracts later in life.
- Use a sunscreen with at least SPF (sun protection factor) 15 every time your child goes outside. For the best protection, apply sunscreen generously 30 minutes before going outdoors. Don't forget to protect ears, noses, lips, and the tops of feet.

*May we always keep the lessons
we learned in kindergarten*

All I Need to Know....

Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people.
Put things back where you found them.
Clean up your own mess.
Don't take things that aren't yours.
Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody.
Wash your hands before you eat. Flush.
Warm cookies & cold milk are good for you.
Live a balanced life - learn some & think some &
draw & paint & sing & dance & play & work...
Take a nap every afternoon.
When you go out in the world, watch out for traffic,
hold hands & stick together.
Beware of wonder. Remember the little seed in the Styrofoam cup: the roots go down & the plant goes up & nobody knows how or why...
Goldfish & hamsters & white mice & even the little seed in the Styrofoam cup - they all die...
So do we...
And it is still true, no matter how old you
are, when you go out in the world,
it is better to hold hands and stick together.
