The Discipline Matrix sets forth the guidelines for assessing consequences for violations of School Board policies. School principals have the discretion to deviate from these guidelines by assessing an appropriate consequence other than stated in the Matrix if he or she determines in his or her sole discretion that there are mitigating or aggravating circumstances.

Positive Behavior Support (PBS) schools have the option to move to the second consequence the first time a discipline referral is written. The 2014-2015 PBS schools are: Bailey, Bellview, Ernest Ward, Ransom, Warrington, Woodham, Workman, Escambia, Pine Forest, Washington.
